INTRODUCTION TO COMMUNITY GROUPS

WHAT IS A COMMUNITY GROUP?

Community groups are small gatherings of people (Christian and non) that meet regularly for friendship, accountability, study and prayer, laughter, and occasionally tears. Community groups are an essential expression of the mission of Mars Hill Church. They're a place where we learn more about Jesus and life together. They're the place where we wrestle with the truths of the Bible and encourage one another toward the life that God intends for us.

Each community group is unique, shaped by its neighborhood and the people who attend. However, you can expect a weekly gathering in a residence that involves food, conversation, prayer, discussion for applying the Bible to practical living, and service in the neighborhood. At the heart of each community group is the desire to see an authentic community marked by love for Jesus, one another, and the neighborhood.

WHY SHOULD I JOIN A COMMUNITY GROUP?

The God of the Bible is a Trinitarian God who is one and three persons: Father, Son, and Spirit. God has made us in his image, which means we are made for community and friendship. And when we are not living in community we suffer because life in a sinful world is too complex and tempting to journey alone. Therefore, community groups are a place where we can live in relationship with one another through the ups and downs of life.

HOW DO I GET CONNECTED TO A COMMUNITY GROUP?

The easiest way to get connected is on Sunday: before or after the service, stop by the info desk at the campus where you attend. The volunteers will personally walk you through the process and connect you to a group. That will include joining The City, which is our private online social network. If you are already on The City, click the "community group" link or select "Find a Community" from the "More" menu. You can begin participating in the community of Mars Hill at any time, and we are glad to welcome you.
