

The Suffering Servant

Words and Music by Dustin Kensrue

Verse 1

C#m His appearance B was so badly marred E
A He could not have been recognized C#m
C#m So disfigured, so beyond all human likeness B E A
C#m That we hid our eyes

Verse 2

C#m Though he carried all our griefs and bore our sorrows B E A
C#m We esteemed him not
C#m But despised him B and considered him afflicted E A
C#m And as one reviled by God B

Chorus 1

A Though all of us have gone astray
C#m Though all have turned to their own ways
B The Lord has laid our wickedness on him A
A His punishment has brought us peace
C#m And crushed for our iniquities
B He died to save his people from their sin F#m

Verse 3

He was stricken, and though pierced for our transgressions
He did not lash out
But was silent, like a lamb led to the slaughter
So he opened not his mouth

Bridge

A C#m E B
The might of Yahweh
A C#m B
Stands revealed
A C#m E B
And by his wounds we
A C#m B
All are healed

Outro Choruses

B
He offered up his soul to death
D#m
He poured it out till none was left
C# G#m
He died but now shall rise and surely see
B
The many he has righteous made
D#m
And satisfied, his work surveyed,
C# G#m
The man of sorrows ever more shall be

On high, exalted, lifted up
The righteous servant raised above
His mighty hand shall work the will of God
The nations all shall hear and see
Astonished at his victory
The kings of men shall shut their mouths in awe
